Waiting for winter.

01.12.2024

Hohoho, dear compatriots,

Have you been waiting for winter?

If not, then nature will show,

What you didn't see!

Once a year winter comes,

It's frost and snow outside;

Bears and hedgehogs, and foxes too

Have entered hibernation.

We waited for winter,

And now finally - we waited for winter

Hockey, Curling and more

Now we will have winter fun!

We all remember,

What Ivo Fomin said:

Even if you have nothing,

This game will soon be over.
